FOREWORD

Our four years in high school are the last big steps we take on the ladder toward success before we are thrust into the world to make a name for ourselves. This year the annual staff has chosen the idea of climbing to success as the theme for the 1962 Yearbook. We hope that this will tell you the story of how the ladder is climbed through our years in high school and after that, the climb is our own. May yours be in the path of success.

To the Students of BHS

CLIMBING

Not at a bound,
But round on round,
Up the ladder we're climbing!

Striving to aim at something higher,
Striving to win the heart's desire,
With noble zeal the soul to inspire;
Up the ladder we're climbing.

Each step we count
The while we mount,
Up the ladder we're climbing!
Ladder of learning, ladder of fame,
Ladder of wealth, it is all the same;
Up the ladder we're climbing!

Pause though we may,
Yet every day
Up the ladder we're climbing!
Not content with a low degree,
Anxious still at the top to be,
Hand over hand, continually
Up the ladder we're climbing!

Our Educators

What factors within the walls of our high school have been the most help to the students as they began their climb to adulthood? The teachers, of course! They have been ever willing to be of any assistance possible and the students shall be ever grateful for their never failing help.

To those people who chauffeur us, watch over our health, and care for our school, we owe a great debt. Without them our years at Bainbridge would find many unnecessary obstacles along the way. We are grateful for their help, their kindness, and the things they have done for us; through their efforts we have had a better life at BHS.

SENIOR CLASS

1962

When we entered the halls of BHS in September of 1958 we were starting the last leg of our climb toward the wonderful world ahead - the world of decisions, opportunities, and completed goals.

Looking back in the years of 1958 to 1962 we remember all the things we have done together - that first day as freshmen, over which we had all been so nervous; frosh basketball; decorating for baccalaureate, which we have now attended as honored guests; our Junior Prom, "Quiet Village"; and our many successful mixers, "Reach for the Stars in 1960", "Spartan Expresso", and the "Senior Superstition Stomp". Our class parties, rooters' buses, hayrides, Senior Ball, Junior-Senior Banquet, and our sign painting helped end our last year together with a bang.

We have received much praise for our scholastic ability as a class. After completing our junior Iowa Tests we were astonished with the results - our class had averaged 99% in all nine tests. This was the highest percentile ranking any class could get!

In our senior year we worked like beavers to stage our senior play, "You Can't Take It With You". Those who weren't frantically memorizing last minute lines were madly selling tickets the day before the night performance. It was a huge success, both dramatically and financially.

Yes, when looking back over the past four years we begin to cherish all the many memories wrapped up inside the halls of BHS. Even though we will all be looking toward the future on graduation night we can't help looking back and remembering all the good times we have had at our Alma Mater - Bainbridge High School.

JUNIOR CLASS

The members of the class of '63 are about to take the last step upward on the ladder of success. Next year, as leaders at BHS, they will have already proven their worth through their capable handling of their many class projects. May their reign and their efforts be everything they want next year and in all the years to come.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Having built their ladder's foundation last year, the sophomores have now begun ascending toward their ultimate goal in life - Success. Decorating for baccalaureate and holding a sock hop in the gym - "Rhythm on the Rock" have been some of the activities of this class. Although still underclassmen, sophomores begin to gain an upper hand in leading school functions.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Whoops! What's going on here? The neophytes misunderstand! Slipping, sliding, and falling, the freshmen began their high school career. But despite their method of beginning, the class of '65, largest B. H. S. has ever seen, has done well this year. Now they understand how to make their climb a success. To this class and all future students of B. H. S., we give our best wishes.

Recording of . . .

Careful plans, bad nerves, and last minute rushes seemed to be characteristic of this year's annual staff. Always, there were those questions in the back of our minds. . . . Will we meet our deadlines? . . . Will our work prove to be successful? . . . Will the students like it? We, the staff, sincerely hope that as you thumb through the pages of this book, you will be as proud of it as we are.

Promoting traffic safety is the prime purpose of a Traffic Court. This is the first year B. H. S. has had an organization of this type; it is composed of seven justices and one prosecuting attorney. School life could never run smoothly without all the groups and committees behind all the big organizations and events. Behind every major activity, there is an element which has a great deal of rewarding responsibility placed on its shoulders. These groups perform various tasks - checking out books, making corsages, making our school a safer place, and making our plays more enjoyable.

BHS has a better name because these service clubs and organizations work to better not only our school but also the community.

Without the benefits we receive from these groups we would not be as able to contend with the obstacles we will meet in the years to come.

Wrestling

This year for the first time, BHS has added wrestling to its sports curriculum. Muscles and strength are characteristic of this popular new sport. Though our wrestlers didn't compete with other schools this year, next year will find them engaged in inter-league combat

To promote interest among girls for athletic activities is the purpose of this competitive group. The GAA weekly bowling in the fall, which gave more girls a chance to develop their bowling skills, proved to be one of the most popular activities this year.

Our Letter, A . . .

Letterman's Club

The school letter is a special and respected symbol. Probably the main reason for the organization of this group is to give recognition to the fellows who have earned their letter in any field of athletics through persistence, coordination, ability, sportsmanship and the All-American desire to do well.

Homecoming 1961

The Royal Court

Princess Gayle

Queen Melanie

Princess Janice

Homecoming night, 1961, climaxed many weeks and months of planning and careful preparation. The coronation of the Royalty took place Friday night between halves of the Bainbridge -vs- Forks football game. Saturday night the Speech and Debate class entertained the visiting alumni. It was truly a Homecoming to remember.

Senior Play

You Can't Take It With You, a comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, was successfully presented on November 16 and 17 by the Senior Class of 1962 who made a landslide profit of $285.

Pride and Prejudice, a romantic comedy written by Jane Austen and adapted by Helen Jerome, was presented by an all-school cast on March 9, 1962. The play, a story which attacks snobbery and sentimentality, was well received by both student and adult audiences.
